

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN JOSE DIVISION

ERIC L. JARRETT,
Plaintiff,

v.

ESSEX PROPERTY TRUST,
Defendant.

Case No. 5:14-cv-05420-HRL

ORDER VACATING MOTION
HEARINGS AND SETTING STATUS CONFERENCE

Earlier this year, defendant filed a motion to dismiss the complaint, and then plaintiff filed a motion for preliminary injunction. Shortly after, the parties jointly requested that the hearings on those motions be continued because they were in the process of finalizing a settlement. The court granted that request, re-set briefing deadlines, and continued the motion hearings to June 16, 2015. Plaintiff subsequently filed a “Motion for Order Enforcing Agreement for Settlement” and noticed it for a June 16 hearing.

None of these motions have been briefed, and all filing deadlines have passed. But, no notice of settlement or dismissal has been filed either. Accordingly:

All pending motions are taken off calendar, and the June 16, 2015 hearings are vacated.

1 The court instead sets this matter for a status conference to be held on June 23, 2015, 1:30
2 p.m. The parties shall file a joint status report no later than June 19, 2015.

3 SO ORDERED.

4 Dated: June 15, 2015
